Introduction

Monisha is a part of the firm's commercial disputes team. She has more than a decade of experience in commercial litigation and is known for her pragmatic approach towards dispute resolution and her in-depth analysis of the subject.

She has a penchant for handling challenging and complex litigations. During the span of her career, Monisha has successfully handled several contentious litigations relating to contractual disputes, property disputes, intellectual property rights, writs, arbitrations, and competition law. She has conducted and assisted counsels in proceedings before various courts and tribunals including the Supreme Court of India, High Courts at Bombay, New Delhi, Chennai, National Green Tribunal, MahaRERA and Competition Commission of India.

She has significant experience in the real estate sector and has represented numerous developers and litigants. Her expertise in intellectual property law includes advising and representing celebrities, influencers, authors, media and production houses and pharmaceutical companies in infringement claims.
Her work in arbitration entails advising and representing domestic and international clients in institutional and ad hoc arbitrations and ancillary proceedings in courts across India.

She is fluent and well-versed in drafting plaints, company petitions, writ petitions, interim applications, affidavits, statements of claim, statements of defence, settlement terms, and RERA complaints.

Before joining Parinam at its inception in 2018, Monisha worked at Juris Corp, ALMT Legal and Crawford Bayley & Co. While pursuing her LL.M. in the United Kingdom, she received the opportunity to work at ALMT Legal's London office. Her experiences at these firms have deepened her knowledge and enriched her professional outlook.
